Folders containing electronic communication may be archived by CAPE IP Law for internal purposes and to ensure compliance with applicable regulations.

3. Use of the CAPE IP Law website

This website (www.cape-iplaw.com) is the property of CAPE IP Law and is protected by copyright and as a database. The copying, storage or transmission of this website or parts thereof for any reason is not permitted without the written permission of CAPE IP Law.

The information contained in this website is provided for informational purposes only, and should not be construed as legal advice on any matter.

The transmission and receipt of information contained on this website, in whole or in part, or communication with CAPE IP Law via the internet or e-mail through this website does not constitute or create a lawyer-client relationship between us and any recipient. You should not send us any confidential information in response to this webpage. Such responses will not create a lawyer-client relationship, and whatever you disclose to us will not be privileged or confidential unless we have explicitly and in writing agreed to act as your legal counsel and/or you have executed a written engagement agreement with CAPE IP Law. The material on this website may not reflect the most current legal developments. The content and interpretation of the law addressed herein is subject to revision. We disclaim all liability in respect to actions taken or not taken based on any or all the contents of this site to the fullest extent permitted by law. Do not act or refrain from acting upon this information without seeking professional legal counsel.

4. Privacy statement

Any personal data collected through this website will be processed by CAPE IP Law in accordance with applicable data protection laws and regulations. Personal data will not be transferred to third parties.

Subject to the obligations incumbent on CAPE IP Law based on legislation combatting money laundering operations and the financing of terrorism or any other legally binding provisions, CAPE IP Law will not intentionally reveal personal data allowing the deduction of your identity to any third parties, including your e-mail address, without your prior consent.

You have the right to be informed of any personal data regarding yourself that is being processed by CAPE IP Law, and to demand the correction or removal of any incorrect, incomplete or irrelevant data. You furthermore have a right to data portability. You can exercise these rights by submitting a written request to this effect to us, dated and signed, and containing a copy of both sides of your identity card.

We respect the confidentiality of your e-mail, and will not send unsolicited mail from the CAPE IP Law domain.

For more information on the above, please refer to our Privacy Policy.

5. Cookies

Our website uses cookies. A cookie is a text-only string of information that a website transfers to the cookie file of the browser on your computer's hard disk so that the website can remember who you are. A cookie will typically contain the name of the domain from which the cookie has come, the "lifetime" of the cookie, and a value, usually a randomly generated unique number.

This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site and services.

We may use cookies in the following ways:

- Where they are essential to make our site work
- To enable the personalisation features on our site (which give you the ability to recall recently viewed pages and see information which you have input on line)
- To compile anonymous, aggregated statistics that allow us to understand how users use our site and to help us improve the structure of our site. We cannot identify you personally in this way.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies by modifying the settings in your browser. However, you may not be able to use all the interactive features of our site if cookies are disabled.

For more detailed information about cookies and how they are used on our website, see our Cookie Statement.

6. Contact information and updates

If you have any questions in relation to the aforementioned legal information, please contact us via veronique.pede@cape-iplaw.com and patricia.cappuyens@cape-iplaw.com.

This legal notice may be updated from time to time. We recommend to check the CAPE IP Law website regularly for any updates.

7. Applicable law and dispute resolution

The aforementioned legal provisions are subject to Belgian law.

Any dispute in relation to the CAPE IP Law website (www.cape-iplaw.com) will fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Ghent, Belgium, thus excluding any other instance.
